SIGNING OF ANGLO-AMERICAN TRADE AGREEMENT NO ORDINARY ACHIEVEMENT

Contribution To Freer World Trade Far-reaching Influence, Says Barclays' Chairman

LONDON, Jan. 19 (REUTERS).—PRESIDING AT THE ANNUAL MEETING OF BARCLAYS BANK, LIMITED, the Chairman, Mr. Edwin Fisher, in his reference to overseas trade, said that the signing of the Anglo-American Trade Agreement was no ordinary achievement for, apart from the benefits which must surely accrue, it will have a far-reaching influence.

The Agreement had come into being fortunately when economic conditions in the United States were showing signs of improvement. It was made possible with the help of the Dominions and India who, in order to facilitate negotiations, were willing to forego certain advantages to which they were entitled under the Ottawa Agreement.

It was a great contribution towards freer world trade. Reducing many duties, said Mr. Fisher, the Anglo-American Agreement raises none and demonstrates what can be accomplished when two countries make up their minds to negotiate and solve difficult problems to their mutual benefit.

TRADE CYCLE DEFINITELY ON UP GRADE

Mr. Hudson Surveys Prospects

LONDON, Jan. 19 (BWS).—In a survey of trade prospects in a speech last night, Mr. Robert S. Hudson, Parliamentary Secretary for Overseas Trade, said that unless war supervenes the trade cycle now seems to be definitely on the up grade. The only thing that was really impeding recovery was the continued international uncertainty. The fall in prices seemed to have ceased and many of Britain's chief customers were beginning to get better value for their products.

Another hopeful sign was the high level of retail trade last year. This had increased 7 per cent. in 1937 on 1936 and 7 per cent. in 1938 on 1937.

In 1938 it continued to rise, though only slightly. The wages level was maintained and the cost of living, after a rise, had started to fall again.

Improvement in the United States, on which we were very dependent in this country, also seemed to be a real one.

MACAO RELAXES FOOD BAN

Prices Reported Fast Dropping

The embargo on the export of foodstuffs from Macao since the fall of Canton is to be repealed by the authorities, according to a message from the Portuguese Colony.

Hongkong has been adversely affected by the embargo, and representations were made a month ago by the Hongkong Chinese Chamber of Commerce to the Macao Government. The result has been a relaxation of the ban, and the export of non-essential food items have been permitted, provided such exports were reported to the Government.

There is a glut in the food market in Macao on account of increasing supplies reaching there from the adjoining country districts, and food prices are fast dropping.

ARMY AUXILIARY CORPS UNITS READY TO LEAVE

Magnificent Example Set By 24 Chinese Youths

(BY J. PRETTEJOHN)

KHAKI—THERE IS NOTHING WONDERFUL, nothing impressive about this coarse, inexpensive material. The coolies wear it, the workmen also wear it, yet for the first time in my life I wish I was smartly attired in uniform made of this material to stand side by side with a handful of 24 Chinese boys and girls.

There is nothing strange for two dozen young people to gather together. Yet there was something in those persons dressed in khaki, that made me long for khaki.

They are the cream of the youth of China, and with one mind and will they set forth to do their bit for their country. They are members of two small units of Chinese Army Auxiliary Corps who are going to the fronts to render service.

FAREWELL PARTY
The members of the units gathered at St. Francis Hotel yesterday at a farewell tea party given to them prior to their departure for the interior within the next few days, and that is where I saw them, smartly dressed in khaki uniforms, and with smiling faces entertaining prominent local business men.

Yesterday they were nobody. To-day they are persons in uniform. To-morrow well, who knows what will happen? Yet faced with this uncertainty, they bear it with a smile.

It is perhaps of interest to know that the youngest member of this Corps is only 15 years of age, an age when most young persons are still dreaming of the comforts

FIERCE BATTLE ON CATALAN FRONT

Loyalists' Heroic Resistance

BARCELONA, Jan. 19 (T/Ocean).—A fierce battle is still raging in all sectors of the Catalan front, states a bulletin issued by the Republican War Ministry last night. Republican troops are continuing to put up heroic resistance against the enemy who succeeded, however, in gaining ground in the region of Pons and Almerola.

On the Estremadura front Republican troops repulsed the enemy attacks and captured hills in the neighbourhood of Valsequillo and a hill in the Sierra Torosa.

NEW DEFENCE LINE

BURGOS, Jan. 19 (T/Ocean).—The new line of defence occupied by the Republican forces on the Catalan front runs from Solzone to Villanueva, with Igualada and Villafraanca as two of its key positions. The Nationalist forces have already reached this defence system in the neighbourhood of Igualada.

On the other sectors of the Catalan front the Nationalist columns are approaching this defence line so that a general attack may be expected to begin very shortly.

The industrial town of Igualada is now regarded as the final key to Barcelona although it is fully realized that after the fall of this town the Nationalist forces will be faced with the task of smashing their way through the difficult country near Montserrat.

Reports reaching here from the front seem to indicate that the Republican militia has, during the last 24 hours, abandoned its practice of destroying villages before evacuating them.

DISTURBANCES IN BURMA

RANGOON, Jan. 19 (T/Ocean).—In connection with the strike disturbances and anti-British propaganda in Burma 13 persons were arrested here yesterday. Among them was a member of the Legislative Assembly, U. Bahaling.

Two of the persons taken into custody are said to be Indian agitators from Calcutta. The Nationalist Party in Burma, the "Dobama" has proclaimed a general strike in reply to the arrests in the last few days.

THOUSAND ON STRIKE

RANGOON, Jan. 19 (Reuters).—A thousand workers of the Burmah Oil Refinery struck to-day while workers of the Burmah Petroleum Company are also going to strike. Troops have been drafted to the affected areas.

POLAND'S POLICY TOWARDS FRANCE

PARIS, Jan. 19 (T/Ocean).—Importance is attached in political circles here to a conversation which the Foreign Minister, M. Bonnet, had yesterday with the French Ambassador to Warsaw.

Following the return of Colonel Beck to Warsaw, and his conversations with Herr Hitler at Berchtesgaden and von Ribbentrop at Munich and Berlin, M. Leon Noel had been instructed to make enquiries regarding Poland's policy in general and towards France in particular.

According to French circles, the reply was entirely satisfactory. Nevertheless, M. Noel was invited to Paris to give M. Bonnet a verbal report.

Exhibition Of Chinese Products Next Month

WITH A VIEW TO PROMOTING the wider use of Chinese national products, a large group of Hongkong Chinese industrialists, headed by Mr. Ip Lan-chuen J. P., founder and President of the Hongkong Chinese Manufacturers' Union propose to hold an exhibition of Chinese products at the Nam Chung School in Nathan Road, Yaumatei, for four days, commencing on Chinese New Year's Day, February 19.

Already, preparations are under way and it is expected that, when the Exhibition opens, several scores of Chinese manufacturers will be represented and will have their goods on display.

A similar show at St. Paul's Boys' College last year was most successful and it attracted a very large attendance. The promoters of this year's exhibition anticipate that it will be even more successful than the last one.

Invitations have been extended to all manufacturers of Chinese products to take part, irrespective of whether they are members of the Hongkong Chinese Manufacturers or not. In this way, it is hoped to get a better representation of Chinese goods.

A strong committee has been appointed with Mr. Ip Lan-chuen as chairman and Mr. Chan Li-sheung as vice-chairman.

THREE JUNKS PIRATED BY JAPANESE

Loss Estimated At $60,000

FOOCHOW, Jan. 19 (Central).—Three large Chinese junks, with timber on board, were pirated by Japanese naval vessels off the mouth of the Min River on the afternoon of January 16.

After having emptied the cargo, the Japanese set the junks on fire. The occupants of the junks escaped by swimming and reported the piracy to the local authorities. The total loss is estimated at $60,000.

ESTABLISHMENT OF HEALTH STATIONS IN S.W. PROVINCES

CHUNGKING, Jan. 19 (Int'l).—The health bureau of the National Government is establishing health stations along main highways and public hospitals in principal cities in the southwest provinces, in order to care for wounded soldiers and sick refugees as well as to overcome epidemics, according to Dr. Yen Fu-ching, director of the bureau and formerly director of the Shanghai Red Cross Hospital. Dr. Yen announced that 14 health stations have already been established along main highways in many parts of China. He hopes to establish a station every 70 kilometres along a highway.

Within a year ten public hospitals have been established in Yunnan province, eight in Kweichow, while 20 are expected to be established shortly in Szechuen.

SIR ARCHIBALD CLARK KERR

SHANGHAI, Jan. 19 (Reuters).—The French cruiser Primaguet sailed under sealed orders this morning, ignoring, without warning, a cocktail party which was to be held on board to-night.

The French, and even the British authorities, refuse to disclose the Primaguet's destination, but it is believed that the cruiser is en route to Saigon, where the majority of French warships in the Far East are said to be at present concentrating.

FRENCH EMPIRE ON INVIOLENT UNITY

PARIS, Jan. 19 (T/Ocean).—A resolution is being submitted to the Chamber by a number of Deputies, proclaiming the French Empire as an inviolable unity and declaring that under no circumstances can any part be transferred to another country.

M. Dahar, of Marseilles, has recommended that the President be given a new title, that of "President of the French Republic and Empire."

It is learned that plans exist for the combining of all North African territories into one and placing them under military administration.

The Resident-General in Morocco, General Nogues, is expected to be appointed commander-in-chief of French North Africa.

SENTRY TELLS COURT OF ATTEMPTED ESCAPE

Echo To Internment Camp Shooting Fatality

An inquiry was held at the Kowloon Court yesterday into the circumstances surrounding the death of Ma Hung, 40, an interned Chinese soldier, at the Matsuang Internment Camp. Ma Hung was shot by a Kumaon Rifleman on sentry duty when it is alleged, while he was attempting to escape from the camp.

Mr. E. Himsforth sat as Coroner and the jury comprised Messrs. J. D. Provan (Foreman), C. M. Xavier, and Li Fuk-shun. The verdict returned was "death at the Kowloon Hospital on January 3, from a gunshot wound incurred while attempting to escape from Matsuang Internment Camp."

The jury were of the opinion that the sentry was carrying out his orders when he fired at the deceased.

It was explained to the jury that two men who are believed to have aided the deceased in the attempted escape from the camp are not available as witnesses.

Military sentries at No. 1 Post and at No. 2 Post and the Indian police constable at the gate of the camp, who gave evidence of the incident, all testified, to the fact that three Chinese soldiers were involved. One man had later come forward to claim that the deceased was only trying to retrieve a packet of cigarettes thrown to him by an European from outside the camp. This man, the jury were told, has since escaped.

Medical evidence was given by Dr. L. D. Fringale of the Kowloon Hospital.

Dhan Singh, Rifleman, of the Kumaon Rifles, stated that while on duty at No. 1 Post on January 2, at 3.45 p.m., he saw three Chinese come out of a washroom, some 25 or 30 yards away from the post. They were attempting to get through the wire fence and one man was crawling through the wire. Witness added that the two other men threw stones at him.

Continuing, Dhan Singh said he had shouted a warning to the man attempting to escape. Besides the three Chinese and the Indian constable at the gate there was no one in the near vicinity. As the deceased paid no heed to the BERLIN, Jan. 19 (Reuters).—Mr. George Rublee, the American director of the Inter-Governmental Committee on Refugees, had a further meeting with the President of the Reichsbank, Dr. Schacht, with regard to financing Jewish refugees from Germany. Mr. Rublee is expected to leave Berlin at the end of the week.

A joint report will be issued giving the maximum German financial assistance to facilitate Jewish immigration. The report will be presented to the Government representatives at the Evian Conference held in London last July.

MILLION DOLLAR CITY PROPERTY DEAL

St. Francis Hotel Block Reported Changing Hands

The "Hongkong Daily Press" learns that negotiations for the sale of the city block which now houses the St. Francis Hotel the Oversea-Chinese Banking Corporation and the Dairy Farm sales depot are almost concluded.

The sum of $1,000,000 is mentioned as the price to be paid by the Hongkong Land Investment and Agency Co., Ltd., who are reported to be the intending purchasers. The property, which is owned by the Oversea-Chinese Banking Corporation, has an area of about 14,000 square feet. The price would be about $76 a square foot.

The Hongkong Land Investment Co. owns the adjoining sites comprising Marina House, facing Queen's Road, and White House (formerly Powell Building) facing Des Voeux Road. The latter will soon be developed, and it is stated that the Oversea-Chinese Banking Corporation will move into the new building when it is completed.

AMERICAN ARMAMENT PROPOSALS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (T/Ocean).—The first of the 14 armament proposals resulting from President Roosevelt's armament programme was submitted to the military commission of the House of Representatives yesterday. It suggests that the strength of the U.S. air force should be increased to 6,000 first line machines and 51,000 men. It also outlines measures for improving the output capacity of the American industry.

ROYAL AIR FORCE JOIN RIFLE ASSOCIATION

Nett Spoon For S.R.(b) Won By Lieut. Le Seilleur

Before commencing the notes for last Wednesday's shoot, it must be recorded that a long felt gap in the membership of the Association has at last been filled by the Royal Air Force. A Club styled the R.A.F. Kai Tak Rifle Club has been formed by Flight-Lieutenant R. C. S. Allen with some twenty members—a most promising start to what it is hoped will be a flourishing Club.

Included in their members is Flight-Sergeant Tolson who took part in the 1938 Bisley Meeting at home entering for Queen Mary, Southern Railway, Kinnaird, and B.S.A. taking a prize in the latter.

What appeared to be ideal conditions greeted members on firing at 200 yards on Wednesday but a hint of what was to come at 600 yards appeared after the first detail had fired at 500 yards. A rest wind appeared to be coming down the Range but the flag on the Butts told a different story. At 600 yards one moment it was flying straight out, the next moment hanging still. This provided a nerve racking but interesting test in continually watching the wind.

The result was very low scoring at 600 yards. Pts. Hammond 32, Lieut. Le Seilleur 31, and Captain Sale 30, being the only members to get into thirties in the S.R. (b).

Lieut. Le Seilleur, the Assistant Honorary Secretary, took the Nett Spoon for S.R. (b) with a 93, and the Handicap Spoon went to Capt. F. Sale and Major G. P. Murray.

WEEKLY HOCKEY NOTES

Indian Federation Not To Enforce New Rules

1940 WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

(BY "THE QUIZ")

At the annual general meeting held at Delhi last month the Indian Hockey Federation decided that the new rules introduced in England, prohibiting hooking and stopping the ball with the hand and foot, will not be introduced in India pending acceptance of same by the International Hockey Federation. The reason of its non-acceptance is that India, being affiliated to the above body, would not accept the new rules till they are duly ratified by it.

It was made known at the same time that the Army Sports Control Board had accepted these changes since they were affiliated to the Army Hockey Association, which body is affiliated to the English Hockey Association.

A pliant situation is created, and the military players participating in the Indian Civilian Hockey Tournaments will not make use of the hand or foot as against the civilian players who have no such bar. This will be a disadvantage to the military players, as the Civilian Clubs will play according to the old rules in operation under the International Hockey Federation.

There were some friendly fixtures last week-end. On Sunday morning the Radio and Postal Sports Club met the Royal Engineers at Caroline Hill and won by the solitary goal scored by Jaggeet Singh in the first half.

The second game was played between Club de Recreio and the Kumaon Rifles at King's Park and a splendid standard of hockey was witnessed. Recreio, who fielded a depleted team, had the services of the Pinto brothers and Pyara Singh.

The score 3-3 was a fair indication of the run of play. A very fast pace was maintained throughout.

A. E. P. Guest, the Colony and Radio hockey player, has returned to the Colony after his tennis trip to Saigon.

Captain Lock, of the Kumaon Rifles has returned after eight months' leave and played his first game last Sunday against Club de Recreio.

India has decided to participate in the World Hockey Championship pending satisfactory arrangements about the gate receipts. This Championship was started at the invitation of Holland, Denmark and Switzerland to the Federation Internationale De Hockey when it was finally decided not to include hockey to the 1940 Olympic Games. These championship hockey games will be held in Holland, Denmark and Switzerland, respectively, and special sums will be allowed to India and U. S. A. as they will have to travel much longer distances.

The Interport hockey match at Macao has been confirmed by the Macao Hockey Club to take place on February 19, at Macao. The first Colony trial is to take place on Sunday at 10 a.m.

The annual encounter between the Civilian and the Services which should have been played last month, have been passed over. This match gave the selectors in the past valuable guidance in picking the Interport side.

CONFIDE IN FAITH PRIOR

BRIDE, is a spinster, long in years who is to be married next month. Her fiancé does not allow a large wedding nor a showy one. Therefore, she is not exactly certain what costume would be appropriate for the occasion.

AT SUCH A WEDDING you describe, smart and plainly tailored street clothes would be the most suitable. Pearl, blue would be charming. The hat small and very chic, no long veil, a face veil, if you like. Wear a corsage, do not carry a bouquet. Or try a dressy silk frock with a smart coat to match. You will wear gloves and carry a bag.

MOTHER OF A 20-YEAR-OLD boy is having a sad and heartrending time. Her son wishes to get married. His position is insecure, bank account nil, and his education incomplete. She inquires for advice in keeping her son from marriage at this time.

IN THIS INSTANCE A MOTHER or father needs to apply a great deal of psychology. In counselling patience, waiting and reasoning, you temporarily lose your boy. He is infatuated with the newly-discovered potentialities of life, the fact that he is a man, and can ask a woman to marry him, become a husband and a householder and live away from home, has gone to his head like wine.

You must take all of this into consideration. If you refuse to reason with the boy and only refuse him his rights he will marry secretly; you will be practically pushing him into the marriage. Try and speak to the girl he wishes to marry. Explain to her how really unfit your 20-year-old son is to take care of a home, that he is still unprepared to climb to the top in the business world. Get the girl on your side.

Let the young people be together and, if possible, speak to them together. Point out the burden he assumes when he marries which eliminates opportunities for study, freedom to travel, and the working out of his career unhampered by a home, wife and children.

Above all things do not close your mind to this subject which is at present of vital importance to your son.

SECRETARY has been offered a better job than her present one. However, it is out of the Colony in another section of the country. She cannot make up her mind, and is afraid she may not hold the new position. Then she would be in difficulties. The new position is an advancement in work and remuneration.

FEAR IS CONTROLLING YOU, and if this continues your whole life may be stunted. If you are certain you can fill the position, there is no reason why you should not accept the offer: it matters not what section of the land you would have to live in. If you burn your bridges behind you, there will be no half-tried efforts in your new job. You must succeed, you have to work for your living, and you have nothing to fall back on, therefore, success is your only salvation. The new change of scenery and atmosphere will be good, from your letter you are evidently in a rut and it is time to "snap out of it." By all means take the job immediately.

WIFE is in family difficulties. She has been married five years and has held a position in the business world during that period. Now, she finds her husband interested in another he wants a separation. The wife's days and nights are full of tears, sorrows, and misunderstanding. She asks for assistance in holding her marriage together.

THE VERY FIRST LESSON FOR YOU is to dry those tears; remember that life will laugh with you, but you cry alone. Do not mention the other woman or refer to her. Do not nag or complain. Go out and invest in a new frock, pay a visit to the beauty shop, be your most charming self at all times and pay a great deal of attention to your husband.

Pretend you are not married to him, attempt to regain some of the spirit you had five years ago when he fell in love with you, and above all, keep the sorrow and heartaches to yourself. Maybe it would be a good idea to get out of business. Make him more responsible and be more dependant. Surround yourself with gay and charming people, do not spend too much time by yourselves.

If this campaign does not work try taking a short trip alone and do not come back until your desires to return compel you. The fourth and fifth years of marriage are difficult, deep consideration, understanding and love commences to grow, both of you have studied and learned about the other. Have patience, be tolerant and kind do not neglect each other and keep your mind up to date as well as your appearance and actions.

Do not get in a rut just because you have been married five years and have a husband to support you. Grow month by month become a better and more interesting person than you were five years ago. You do your part faithfully and leave the ultimate solution to the days of life to come.

DEAR FAITH PRIOR: We have lived in the Colony two years, my wife and I. Business occupies my daytime hours, however my wife has commenced to complain of the lack of interest during her days. She wishes to take a position in a commercial company with a salary. The empty days are causing her great dissatisfaction and unhappiness.

I would like to find a way to keep her from this position, she does not need the salary, and furthermore find something to occupy her time while I am in my office. A HUSBAND.

DEAR HUSBAND: The first question, what about children this certainly would occupy her time and be a source of pleasure and amusement for the two of you.

There are many interesting and worthy causes to interest your wife. Charity work in the schools, hospitals and with the Chinese relief organizations. Sport activities, tennis, riding, sailing, badminton, swimming; each morning she could devote an hour or two to such exercise. The study of a foreign language would be interesting, useful and entertaining several hours a week.

There is sewing, reading, writing, gardening, and her household to occupy her time. Why not try sending her on a week's trip to Shanghai or Manila, she may not be feeling well and this would give her a new outlook on life, she would return with new ideas and interests. A change is good for every one.

There must be a certain hobby your wife enjoys, help her to concentrate on this, or maybe she is lonely, encourage her to join clubs and spend afternoons in other women's company. A visit of ten

Round The Shops

Going and nearly gone are the purchases of the season from the Hongkong shops which are indulging in after-Christmas sales in all departments. However, if you are not aware of the bargains you can pick up, it is advisable that you call this week and save yourselves some money in the inexpensive and reduced values offered.

The shops will probably keep their sale prices until the end of the month, but that does not mean the merchandise will be there. A great deal of the merchandise has been sold, but there are still very fine investments to be had.

Store Wide

Lane, Crawford's sale is exactly "store wide." All departments have reduced merchandise which is useful and a saving. Shoes are taking another reduction, since the sale price of last Monday. Evening, day, sports, summer and semi dress footwear are from $3, but do not be disgusted if they do not have your size.

Bathing suits which will be able to stand the coming season's style trends are selling from $7.50 upwards, also shorts are priced at $5 and a fair selection of linen slacks are on sale. What about next summer? Buy your apparel now and at a saving.

Children's clothing has been marked down to excellent values. Boys' turn-over-top hose, all wool from $1.25, shoes, short socks, Meridian pyjamas, (and here is a buy) are below their regular retail price. In this same department there is the 20 per cent. reduction on all regular merchandise.

A Hat Sale

A weakness belonging to most women is the desire for a new bonnet. Mayo's, in the Arcade, are having a sale too. Included in their reduced merchandise are many goodlooking hats from America and copies of famous millinery houses in Europe. Black, brown, blue or the more vivid shades are designed into the chapeaux for the various costumes and outfits.

Maybe here you can find the suitable one which you have been searching for since before the holidays. If not, try giving this shop an illustrated idea and they can carry it out for you in any colour or material desired.

A small selection of evening and afternoon frocks are included in the sale which, would be very desirable in any wardrobe to fill in during the between season. A few novelty gadgets are still to be had at sale prices bracelets, earrings, cigarette cases and clips.

Between Season

Rivelle in the Arcade certainly does keep her clientele's clothing problems in mind. Not only has she a fine selection of crepe, wool and acetate frocks on sale, but she has just received a small selection of woollen costumes, silk afternoon frocks with hats to correspond for the clothing question between winter and spring.

The new tweed suits are bright, well tailored and quite inexpensive, just the outfit for this and the months to come. The hats are sassy, delightful and dignified, in colours to blend with the ensemble.

Gloves, bags, neckwear, wraps for evening and pull-on sport coats, casual, with fur trim, are on sale.

The few novelties in this shop complement your various costumes, and you never can have too many scarves, clips, belts, pins, flowers, which certainly do buoy up your daily outfit.

days or two weeks from an old friend might help her.

(Each week in this Column FAITH PRIOR answers questions of a personal nature submitted by readers of the "Daily Press.")

CATCHING UP WITH THE TRIBE

A LOT OF SENTIMENTAL NONSENSE has been written about the increased beauty of our mothers just before we were born. However, every day you can see a contrary picture that we've begun to suspect the beauty portrait as a large-scale come-on story to keep the women of the world from imitating the proud beauties of Ancient Rome, those ladies who were so fearful of disfigurement and loss of glamour, that they frequently refused to have children.

It is generally agreed that to-day only because of ignorance, or lack of diligence, need a woman take to the confines of her home or be affected adversely by child-bearing. It's largely up to you, not your doctor, his principal pre-occupation is with your health and your baby's development. That takes care of half of your beauty struggle, of course.

But he does not consider your increased personal loveliness one of his essential obligations. So the responsibility of preserving or cultivating your youthful good looks, and keeping in fashion, rests largely on your own shoulders.

First of all, during this time of your life, double your beauty salon appointments. Pay strict attention to your hair, skin, nails etc. they grow much quicker.

Now, the wardrobe. The first few months out of the nine you will lose weight, then slowly regain the poundage, therefore, various adjustments in your ready to wear will be necessary.

Dismiss the tight fitting, slinky, exotic afternoon and evening frocks and the very high heels; think nothing about them, they are not for you at this time.

The early morning hours may not be so gay, but a woolly chenille tailored robe in a pastel will help you over these hours to breakfast.

maternity wardrobe this season. The dresses for such hours, are tight in the bodice or draped, and usually the skirts are very full. If a person is terribly self-conscious a broadened evening cape bolero length contrasting is very high fashion.

SOFTENING DESIGN.

Dinner gowns with high neck and full draped sleeves have skirts which are full with drapery giving an indistinct waist line, this type of design is softening and feminine.

No longer are the wrap round apron style maternity dresses the only vogue, fashion designers give thought each season to garments for such events and occasions.

Long boleros, capes, pleats, finger-tip jackets, three quarter full coats, slit skirts, front gathers in frocks are all style features of the winter and spring creations and any of these treatments can be found in the new dresses.

Hats, gloves, bags, scarfs follow the general style trend. But be careful of jewellery, arms and legs are apt to swell during pregnancy and heavy jewellery will accentuate such conditions at the hands or neck. Dainty fine jewels are equally attractive and can be worn to advantage.

SHOE QUESTION

The shoe question should be discussed with the physician.

This tailored dressmaker two-piece suit of light-weight wool has softening details in the jacket. The wrap-around adjustable skirt is an outstanding treatment in this suit designed for matronly figure.

WOOLLEN FROCKS

Sweaters and skirts are chic and warm the first couple of months, after which woollen frocks with pleated skirts and bodice treatments can be worn to flattering advantage. Suits of two and three piece are always in the fashion picture handsome tweeds tailored into dressmaker ensembles of coat and skirt with a topcoat can be worn throughout the day, when travelling, motoring or general occasions.

Silk or wool and silk ensembles designed into a one piece dress with finger-tip or three quarter coat trimmed in furs are smart ensembles for social afternoon activities. This type of costume is flattering, warm and comfortable.

CAPES IN STYLE

Capes are in style this year. Hip or longer length capes are worn with street dresses, informal silk dresses and some suits. One of these wraps in light weight fur would solve many costume difficulties during the final months before the youngster's birth.

Little thought is necessary for the dinner or evening gown in the

How Are Your Legs?

LEGS, LIKE HANDS, ARE AN INDEX to character, mental habits, and poise, according to world known painters, artists and doctors. They can tell you whether a woman is self-assured or ill at ease, energetic or lazy, mentally awake or inert. The arch of beautiful legs is inactivity. How do your own legs behave? Is your gait smart? Is there a springy knee action, and a firm, muscular pull from the thighs to the ankles?

Do you walk straight and unwaveringly along two parallel lines, your weight placed slightly forward on the balls of your feet, your toes directly in front of your heels? These things are as important as the measurements of calf and ankle.

Remember, the smartness of your clothing depends on your posture, how you display your body through actions of walking, sitting and standing.

Move about briskly for 15 minutes after each meal, and you will not have heavy, muscle-bound legs.

How about the ankles, do they support you, or are you constantly wobbling when you walk? They can be strengthened with daily exercise. Rotate the foot around the ankle joint, first in one direction and then in another. Walk about your room at intervals on your toes. While standing, cross your ankles, and alternately rise to your toes and sink to your heels.

If your legs are over-developed, take a brisk three-mile walk every day. Skipping a rope or pedalling a bicycle half an hour daily is effective. If muscles bunch up in bulbous areas, a daily kicking exercise will help to taper them. Suspend a sofa pillow from the ceiling or door and kick it with each leg 50 times.

When you walk, do not stride like a policeman or soldier. This puts your hips out of place, nor should you loiter or creep. Nothing is more graceful than a woman with her head held high, shoulders back, stomach in, hips down and her feet carrying her along at a smooth gait.

RANSOM FOR A ROTHSCHILD

It is learned that the Germans have made a considerable reduction in the ransom which they are claiming for the release of Baron Louis de Rothschild, who has been a prisoner in Vienna since Hitler seized Austria.

Several months ago it was stated that the ransom demanded was £2,000,000. Now it is £500,000. Baron Louis is being held to account for the collapse in 1931 of the Credit Anstalt, of which he was president. This caused enormous financial losses in Austria and repercussions throughout the financial world.

Germany says that the Rothschild family must help to cover the liabilities. And Baron Louis is the hostage.

Achieve the illusion of slender legs with sheer, shadowed hose, available in smart colours, whose subtle

LONE WOLF IN PARIS

Bringing to the screen one of the gayest and most exciting romantic comedies of the year, "The Lone Wolf in Paris", with its colourful background of continental intrigue, proves an ideal vehicle for the charm of Francis Lederer and the beauty of Frances Drake.

In this sophisticated adventure story, now playing at the King's Theatre, Lederer is offered a role that fits him like the proverbial glove, and he brings to life Louis Joseph Vance's famed gentleman crook most successfully.

AN ALL-DISNEY PROGRAMME

Ten of Walt Disney's latest coloured cartoon comedies and symphonies are being shown today in one bill at the Queen's Theatre. None of these short films have been shown here before: they include Mickey Mouse, Donald Duck and all the other captivating creations of Disney's genius.

Mickey and Minnie Mouse enter the field of costume drama in "Brave Little Tailor", based on the familiar Grimm fairy tale of the meek little man who is taken by mistake to be a giant-killer.

Donald Duck, who is fast becoming a rival to Mickey, tries his hand at golf and other adventures.

The latest of Disney's animal characters, Ferdinand the Bull, will also be seen.

MALARIA AND FALL OF HELLENIC CULTURE

Rain is a great boon to the Greeks, but sometimes, from June to August, it becomes a nuisance. During this season it is very bad for the crops, and, in addition, the number of malaria cases increases. Owing to this, there is a shortage of flour and a greatly increased demand for quinine. These two products are indispensable to the Greeks and both must be bought abroad.

Without bread the Greek perishes, but without quinine he also dies. It is not surprising that the downfall of the hegemony of Ancient Greece and the end of the grandeur of Hellenic culture are both attributed to malaria.

Hippocrates, whose works are of immense importance in medicine, described malaria as an ill that has a paralyzing influence on humanity. During his time one was powerless to deal with this malady, whereas now an excellent remedy is available.

Many centuries were to go by after the fall of the Grecian Empire, before the useful properties of cinchona bark were discovered, quite by chance. Now, the raw bark is scarcely ever used. As a medicine for malaria, only quinine, extracted from the bark, is used.

Recently, the Malaria Commission of the League of Nations pointed out in one of the reports devoted to the therapeutics of malaria that it considered that the short quinine treatment (15 to 18 grains per day during five to seven days) was the best and most economical treatment for malaria. For prophylaxis the Commission recommends a daily dose of six grains during the whole malarial season.

In Greece, the short quinine treatment has been employed for many years past, and has given excellent results.

BRITISH PLAYS ON TOUR

Old Vic Company Leaves London

LONDON, Jan. 19 (BWS).—With the co-operation of the British Council, the Old Vic Theatre Company will leave London to-day for a three months' tour during which they will play in a representative series of British plays in Portugal, Italy, Egypt, Greece and Malta.

Two Shakespearean plays are included in the repertoire, namely, Tyrone Guthrie's modern dress production of "Hamlet" and "King Henry V." Plays by Sheridan and Plinero, and by four modern dramatists, Shaw, Edward Woolf, Norman Ginsbury and J. B. Priestley, will be staged.

The proposal for the tour originated in an invitation from the Egyptian Government to play in Cairo.

DANCER SPEAKS OF £3,000 GIFT

Mr. Casani Meets His Creditors

When creditors of Mr. Santos Casani, the professional dancer, of Regent-street, W., met at London Bankruptcy Buildings recently Mr. C. T. Newman, Assistant Official Receiver, said that he understood the liabilities to be about £4,000. No assets were realizable.

Mr. Casani did not agree, but put the liabilities at approximately £2,000.

Asked whether he did not owe someone about £3,000, Mr. Casani replied, "It was a gift, not a loan." Mr. Newman said that according to Mr. Casani's statement, he was a British subject born in South Africa. He came to England in 1915, and enlisted in the Army.

He received severe head and face wounds, and was granted a pension of £84 a year.

In 1921 he started the Casani School of Dancing in Knightsbridge, and built up a successful business.

ENTERTAINMENT EXPENSES
He had been paid as much as £150 for an appearance as a dancer.

In 1925, with £2,000, given him by friends he moved to bigger premises in Regent-street, where he had been since.

His earnings averaged £2,000 a year, but he admitted he entertained lavishly, for which he was given expenses in addition.

In 1933 Mr. Casani and another person promoted Casani's Club, Ltd., and £10,000 was spent on decorations alone.

In December, 1937, damages amounting to £200 were awarded against Mr. Casani in an action. He appealed against the judgment, and a settlement was arrived at.

Mr. Newman asked if he had put any money aside for a "rainy day." Mr. Casani: "Unfortunately I have not. I spent freely and it went."

The case was left in the hands of the Official Receiver.

OXFORD TRIBUTE TO CHIANG

Profound Admiration

The text of a letter addressed to General Chiang Kai-shek by certain heads of colleges and professors of the University of Oxford has been issued by the Chinese Embassy.

It expresses "the profound admiration we have for you, Sir, the head and front of the gallant resistance which the Chinese people are making to the invaders of your country and the enemies of your freedom," and continues:—

"That you and your fellow-countrymen should have been able to steel yourselves to such incredible feats of courage and endurance is now one of those acts in history which men can never forget. In the past the British people have had their ignorant doubts as to the reality and significance of Chinese civilization and culture.

"To-day, instructed as we are on the one hand by the savage hates of narrow nationalistic cults, on the other hand by the dignity and self-control of Chinese feeling against Japan, we have no doubt as to whose hands bear the torch of civilization."

"We look to the day when the democracies of the world shall stand unflinchingly on your side and the value of your people shall bring even from your enemies that need of recognition which their own traditions summon them to accord."

The signatories are as follows:—
W. G. S. Adams, Warden of All Souls; C. M. Bowra, Warden of Wadham; J. L. Brierly, Professor of International Law, Helen Darbishire, Principal of Somerville; E. R. Dodds, Professor of Greek; H. A. L. Fisher, Warden of New College; L. Grier, Principal of Lady Margaret Hall; B. E. Gwyer, Principal of St. Hugh's; R. H. Hodgkin, Provost of Queen's; Leonard Hodgson, Regius Professor of Moral and Pastoral Theology; E. R. Hughes, Reader in Chinese Philosophy and Religion; A. D. Lindsay, Master of Balliol; R. W. Livingston, President of Corpus Christi; J. de L. Mann, President of St. Hilda's; R. E. Marrett, Rector of Exeter College; Robert McElroy, Harmsworth Professor of American History; H. J. Paton, White's Professor of Moral Philosophy; F. M. Powicke, Regius Professor of Modern History; W. D. Ross, Prof. of Oriol; Jas. A. S. Watson, Sibthorpe Professor of Rural Economy.

Round About

When a human being has taken more than his share of the spirits which are in bottles, his own natural spirit moves him to prank and situations usually avoided.

And so it was that a young man of spirit who had over-indulged in spirits of a liquid nature, awoke one morning fully clothed to overcoat and hat, upon a sofa in a living room. The four walls were familiar but the furniture strange. He did not possess a radio, and where did all the books in the tall case come from?

There is an answer to all such questions, and on dashing out the front door he noticed the name and number there.

Six months ago he had lived in that flat. Embarrassment and disgust beset him, taking out his key ring he slipped the key of his former flat from the chain and no more will he have the difficult decision of deciding which establishment his one remaining door key fits!

Girl Who Sat In Lap Of Buddha Married

Anthea Hollick, the girl who angered Ceylon natives by posing for a photograph sitting in the lap of a sacred statue of Buddha, was married in Colombo to the man who took the snapshot.

Miss Hollick revealed on her wedding day that a live cobra had been found in her cabin trunk during her voyage to Britain last July to buy her trousseau.

During the wedding ceremony a man attempted to incite the watching crowds by exhibiting a reproduction of the original photograph. Police rushed forward, seized the picture, and tore it up.

ROBBED ON OUTING AT DING DONG ROCK

Daring Crime Related At Criminal Sessions

A daring daylight robbery at the Ding Dong Rock, favourite Chinese worshipping place in Kowloon City, was described by Mr. J. B. Prentiss, Assistant Crown Solicitor, before the Paines Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday when two men, Yuen Chun and Wong Kam-fu, and a woman, Chan Chu, were charged in connection with the crime.

The counts against the men were robbery with aggravation and possession of arms. Yuen pleaded guilty; the other denied his guilt but was convicted. The woman was found not guilty and released.

The following jury was empanelled:—Messrs. J. M. Dalziel (foreman), B. Ditta, J. R. Jones, Yung Shu-cho, S. H. Langston, W. J. Priest and A. E. Ribeiro.

Outlining the Crown's case, Mr. Prentiss said complainant, Mr. Tam Man-lung, lived in Leighton Hill Road with his wife and children. On December 11 they decided to take a family outing to the Har Wing Temple and on to Ding Dong Rock.

As they approached the rock they saw two persons above them but they paid no heed to them, and crawled into the hollow under the rock. Inside, they noticed a man standing at the far end of the hollow with a dagger in his hand, and on looking round they saw another man standing at the entrance through which they had entered. The latter, they thought, was holding a revolver.

PROPERTY HANDED OVER

Mr. Tam was compelled to hand over his watch and chain, a jade and gold finger ring and a wallet which contained, amongst other things, $85 in Hongkong money.

His wife had to hand over four rings.

After the men had gone, Mr. Tam and his wife made a report at Kowloon City Police Station.

The next day the woman accused went into the Kut Chung Pawnshop with two rings. The pawnbroker recognized them as part of the property which had been circumscribed as stolen, called a Chinese detective and had the woman arrested.

At the police station she said she had been asked by a man named Ah Yun to pawn the rings, and first accused, the man who had pleaded guilty, was taken into custody. Wong was arrested on December 20 and on the next day was identified by Mr. Tam, his wife and his son.

Evidence in support of the prosecution's case was taken.

PREVIOUS CONVICTIONS

Accused elected to testify and the woman called two character witnesses. The jury returned their verdicts without retiring.

Yuen, who had two previous convictions against him for larceny from a dwelling house, and is at present serving sentence of six months for breach of a deportation order, was given a term of 3 years, to run from the expiration of his present sentence. Wong, who had a previous conviction for larceny from the person, will serve four years with hard labour.

SNATCHING OF HANDBAGS

Accused Remanded For Observation

A remand to the next Criminal Sessions for medical observation was ordered when the case in which Wong Sang, 32, unemployed, was again brought before His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday.

Wong was charged on two counts of handbag-snatching, in both of which personal violence was alleged. One of the complainants was a European woman, Mrs. Vera Miranoff.

When his case was called on Monday, accused had admitted the offences. His aged mother had testified that he was a good son and was her sole means of support. He had been in regular employment for 11 years, until about two months ago.

Mr. J. Whyatt, Crown Counsel, prosecuted.

CHERIBON MARU PASSENGERS

When the s.s. Kamo Maru arrived in port yesterday she had on board the 12 passengers taken off the Cheribon Maru when that vessel ran aground north of Mindanao Island last Sunday. The twelve members of the party are on their way back to Japan.

Though some of the Cheribon Maru's passengers wished to land at Manila and continue their journey south from there they had not the necessary passports. They are returning to Japan and will take ship again from there.

THREE YEARS' HARD LABOUR FOR EX-SOLDIER

His original plea of not guilty was altered to one of guilty when Tseng Yik-tak, charged on three counts in connection with a forged document, made his second appearance before His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday.

The charges were:—(a) that he did on December 1, 1933, utter a forged bill of exchange purporting to be a bearer cheque signed by a Mr. Woo Hoi-sang for $1,500 in Chinese currency; (b) on December 5, uttered a similar document, for H.K. $1,800; (c) possession of stolen property, namely, a chop, a cheque and a cheque book, the property of Mr. Woo Hoi-sang.

Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, who was instructed by Mr. C. A. Sutherland Russ for the defence, said he had had an opportunity of seeing accused since Monday, and he had come to the conclusion there was no possible defence. He had, therefore, changed his plea, and would make submissions in extenuation.

SERVED IN ARMY

In the course of these, counsel mentioned that accused had served with the Chinese army and had taken part in some severe fighting. With regard to the crime with which he was charged, it was because he knew Hongkong well that he had been chosen by the gang who was concerned in it to cash the money.

Sentence of three years' hard labour was passed.

Mr. J. Whyatt, Crown Counsel, prosecuted.

ADMITS ASSAULT, FINED $10

A. M. Bux, well-known local boxer, was summoned before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday for assault on Li Chun-fong on January 5, and was fined $10.

Mr. C. A. Sutherland Russ appeared on behalf of the complainant.

Li said that he was walking with Mrs. Bux along Queen's Road and when outside the Central Theatre, the defendant met him and hit him (Li) in the eye.

Bux admitted that he has assaulted the defendant, giving the reason that he had once warned Li not to walk out with his wife. Mrs. Bux said that she knew Li as a child and Li was brought up in her father's home.

The defendant was also bound over in a sum of $25 to keep the peace for six months.

ILL-TREATMENT OF MUI TSAI

Lai Tsun-ming, 40, unemployed, and his wife, Yan Yik-hung, appeared on remand before Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Court yesterday jointly charged with keeping an unregistered mui tsai, Lai Shun-hop, ill-treating the girl and assaulting her in such a manner as to cause her unnecessary suffering and injury.

Inspector H. W. Fraser, of the S.C.A., prosecuted.

It was alleged that on January 6 first defendant, who was sick, told the girl to boil medicine. Being ignorant about cooking, she did not boil the medicine properly and was beaten by the first defendant. Later second defendant came in and also struck the girl. Convicting on the first charge, Lai was fined $5, while his wife was fined $10 on the first and second counts.

Cheribon Maru, which is a Nanyo Yusen Kaisha vessel, have been taken off and the ship has been left in the hands of the salvage contractors.

THROWING CORROSIVE ACID ON WOMEN

Coolie Sentenced At Sessions

"It is very fortunate for you that you did no real damage or else your sentence would be a very different one indeed. You must learn to keep your temper, and I will give you the next six months in which to learn that lesson."

These remarks were addressed by His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday, to Leung Kai, 38-year-old coolie, when sentencing the latter after he had been convicted by a jury on a charge of throwing corrosive fluid on two young women.

The case against the man, which opened on Wednesday, was, briefly, that he had poured caustic soda from a tin from the sixth floor of the servants' quarters of Alexandra Building onto the two women who were crossing a bridge on the fourth floor dividing the servants' quarters and the offices.

PAWNING OF CAMERA

This, the Crown alleged, was because he had been angered by the request of one of the girls to pay her a sum of $5 to redeem a camera which, according to her, he had taken from her and pawned.

The man's defence was that the whole thing was an accident. He had tripped, and the caustic soda had flowed out of the cigarette tin he was holding in his hand. He also claimed that the girl had requested him to pawn the camera.

Mr. J. Whyatt, Crown Counsel, conducted the prosecution. The following jury heard the case:—Messrs. J. F. V. Ribeiro (foreman), M. L. Rocha, Lee Wai-long, H. O. Mearl, W. J. Woolley, Ng Wai-yen and K. Chan.

warning, witness said, he fired a shot at him, aiming at his thigh. The man was in a crouching position when he was hit and he fell down. The two other Chinese pulled him into the camp. Witness saw no European near the camp before or after the incident.

There were orders posted in the sentry box at No. 1 Post, in the Hindustani language, and Roman script, which he had followed.

Witness stated that he shouted and waved warning with his hand. He did not understand Chinese.

Govind Singh, Rifleman on sentry duty at No. 2 post, stated that he witnessed the incident and sounded the alarm with his whistle. The sentry box in which he was stationed was some 120 yards away from No. 1 Post.

Evidence was given by Narain Singh and by Subadar Puran Jangh respecting the posting of and instructions to the sentries. The latter witness stated that it was not unusual for a man to attempt to escape from the camp.

ORDERS EXPLAINED

Major J. Moffatt, of the 1st Kumaon Rifles, testified to the instructions issued to the men on sentry duty at the camp. One of the orders was that the sentry should prevent any attempt to escape on the part of any one of the interned soldiers, that he was to shout a warning to the escapee and then to shoot at him until the attempt was abandoned.

The final witness was the Indian police constable who also testified to having witnessed the incident. Witness had shouted to the man, in Chinese, to get away from the wire, but the deceased either did not hear the shouts or pay any attention to this warning.

Sequel To Assault On Editor

Chan Shek-lam, 27, odd job painter, who was detained by police in connection with the alleged assault on P. S. Lin, alias Lam Pak-sang, managing editor of the "South China Daily News," on Tuesday afternoon, appeared for the first time before Mrs. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday.

He was charged with wounding Lin with intent to murder and wounding with intent to do grievous bodily harm on January 17 at Des Voeux Road, Central.

Detective-Inspector L. R. Whant is in charge of the case and a remand of seven days was granted. Lin, who was struck several times on the left side of the head, is a patient in the Queen Mary Hospital. His condition, it was learned last night, is improving.

On Wednesday morning to escape from Matauchung Internment Camp resulted in the appearance of one of them, Cheng Shui-lung, 24, before Mr. E. Hims with at the Kowloon Court yesterday. The other man succeeded in escaping.

Cheng was sentenced to one month's imprisonment with hard labour. Inspector H. E. Rogers, who prosecuted, stated that at 5 a.m. on Wednesday, Cheng and another internee placed a long plank over the barbed wire fence in an attempt to climb over to the adjoining refugee camp. Defendant was arrested when seen attempting to get over.

MARTS FOR CHINA
PRODUCTS

ONE OF THE LATEST additions to the business houses of Hongkong is the "Chinese National Products Emporium" in Des Voeux Road, almost directly opposite the Post Office. Here one can find Chinese goods of all descriptions, from toys and towels and socks to tea and food products and blankets. Prices are reasonable and within reach of the average purse.

WHILE the idea of promoting Chinese products has our warm support, just as does the promotion of British products, we cannot help feeling that it would perhaps be in the interest of Chinese trade and industry if the Chinese merchants to establish offices for the sale of their goods in foreign countries, in such centres, say, as London, New York and Paris, as well as other leading commercial centres for it is in these places that they would be best serving their purpose. Hongkong is all very well but the majority of the goods are being purchased by the Chinese people themselves and few, if any, find their way into the foreign markets which have been and are entirely neglected by the Chinese merchant.

SO FAR as we know, no concerted effort has been made by the Chinese to invade foreign markets or to push the sales of their goods abroad. True, individual efforts have been made but surely something further should be done—with the support of the Chinese Government if necessary. Individual effort is all very well but, unless there is strong backing, it will not go far.

CHINESE PRODUCTS, we are confident, would find a ready market abroad, especially at the present juncture when China and the Chinese are "in the news," and boycotts of a voluntary and CHINA'S unofficial nature OPPORTUNITY have been started in a number of countries. This is a grand opportunity for China. In the United Kingdom and the United States, for example, these movements have taken the form of burning goods of Japanese origin, refusal to buy anything that smells Japanese, and even parades urging their fellow-nationals to boycott the Japanese. Of course, conditions in Hongkong naturally differ and the authorities here would not countenance a boycott, but there is nothing to prevent the Chinese from conducting a campaign for the purchase of goods made in their own country and in countries other than Japan.

WITH THE BOYCOTT of Japanese tea and other Japanese goods in London and other places, there would undoubtedly be

THE VENERABLE ORDER OF ST. JOHN

Governor Holds Investiture

TWENTY MEMBERS OF ST. John Ambulance Brigade were invested by His Excellency the Governor at Government House yesterday when they received the decorations recently conferred upon them.

The function was attended by a small but very representative gathering, amongst those present being Lady Northcote, His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl Macgregor and Lady Macgregor, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, the Hon. Mr. N. L. Smith, Commodore E. B. C. Picken, the Hon. Sir Shou-sun Chow, the Hon. Sir Robert Kotewall, the Hon. Mr. C. G. Alabaster and many others.

Just before 5 o'clock, His Excellency the Governor and the entourage took up their positions on the dais, in the Ball Room, and on His Excellency mounting the dais the band played the first six bars of the National Anthem.

POSTULANTS PRESENTED
The Director of the Saint John Ambulance Association and Brigade, Mr. Alfred Morris, said: "Your Excellency, I present to you the following Postulants, whose promotion in or admission to the Venerable Order of the Hospital of Saint John of Jerusalem has been sanctioned by His Majesty the King, the Sovereign Head of the Grand Priory in the British Realm of the said Venerable Order."

Professor William Innes Gerrard, O.B.E., Mr. Abbas el Aroull, Mr. Fung Kong-un, Mrs. Rosa Langley, Mr. Edward Maurice Raymond, Dr. John Edward Dovey, The Hon. Dr. Li Shu-fan, Dr. Arthur Wai-tak Woo, Mr. Szeto Chung, Dr. Ma Luk, Dr. Shin Lok-shang, Mr. Fung Ping-fan, Dr. Ip Kam-wah, Mr. Kwok Chan, Dr. Agnes Lillas Jenkins Dovey, Dr. Parris Rutledge, Miss Fok Kum-yung, Miss Hung Lai-kwan, Miss Delminda Lopes, and Mr. Tang Pak-kau.

As his or her name is read, each Postulant bowed to His Excellency. His Excellency then addressed the Postulants as follows:—
"By virtue of the authority vested in me by His Majesty, the Sovereign Head of the Order, I am about to invest you with the insignia of the Venerable Order of the Hospital of Saint John of Jerusalem in the British Realm. Be loyal to your Sovereign, true to your honour, and faithful to the Order."

"Remember always that the Cross which you wear is the sign of man's Redemption; its arms symbolize the Christian virtues, prudence, temperance, justice, and fortitude; its points represent the eight Beatitudes, which spring from the practice of those virtues; may its whiteness ever remind you of the purity of life required of those who fight for the Christian Faith and live for the service of the poor and suffering."

THE principal Aide-de-Camp then called the names of the Postulants, each one of whom ascended the dais, bowed to His Excellency, was invested, bowed, and, except Professor Gerrard, returned to his or her place. Professor Gerrard took his place on the dais.

When the last Postulant had returned to his place the band played one verse of the National Anthem.

His Excellency and the entourage then left the dais, and light refreshments were served informally. The band rendered a programme of music.

STATEMENT WELL
RECEIVEDSlight Demand For Chinese Loans

LONDON, Jan. 19 (Reuter).—The Chinese Finance Ministry's spokesman's statement on the subject of Customs loans has been well received in the city and Chinese loans show an all-round advance of one point. A slight demand is visible for the first time since January 18.

Chinese circles believe that part of the purpose of the announcement was that China was unable to continue payments and was to draw the world's attention to the fact that despite the war she had hitherto met all debts from her own resources.

The Chinese spokesman's statement is hopefully regarded as an indication that the Chinese Government is endeavouring to pave the way to a satisfactory settlement.

an excellent opening for furthering the sale of Chinese tea and for anything that the Chinese may be able to produce in place of those from Japan. China's tea is so well-known that it needs no introduction but the merchants should be careful not to make the mistake which some of their predecessors made—of mixing inferior tea with what was supposed to be tea of good quality.

WE FEEL SURE that this is a matter which the Chinese merchants, and even the Chinese Government, might well give due consideration. As to its feasibility we have no doubts whatever. As a means of propaganda for China, it would be first class.

PEACE PRAYER
BRINGS CHARGE
ON PASTOR

BERLIN, Jan. 19 (Reuter).—Pastor Mueller, leader of the opposition church, together with two other pastors, are to appear in court on a charge of "misusing the pulpit."

The charge follows Mueller's request to his parishioners on September 30 to "pray for the maintenance of peace and the successful issue of international efforts on behalf of peace," for uttering which Mueller's salary was stopped.

BACK TO THE BIBLEThe Miracle Of Regeneration

"The Book reveals that man came from a garden, not from a jungle, as present-day atheistic and paganistic modernism would have us believe."

Dr. Oliver, speaking from St. John, chapter 3, at the Kowloon Union Church on Wednesday, dealt with the false teachings that sin is the result of bad environment, and that the Fall was upward. Evidence of our fallen condition can be seen in our own hearts and in the conduct of children.

God's ultimatum to humanity is "Ye must be born again." Wagon-loads of sermons have been preached on St. John 3, verse 5, identifying "born of water" with baptismal regeneration. The phrase has no reference whatever to baptism. A man must be regenerated before he can be baptized, and "born of water" refers to physical birth. Every successful birth is a water birth.

A dry birth usually kills either the child or the mother. If regeneration were by baptism, the Atonement would be utterly nullified. Jesus Christ was baptized, but not for regeneration.

A young fellow of 24, named Harry Munroe, came into the Pacific Garden Mission in Chicago one evening, with a kit of burglary tools under his arm. He just wanted to kill time until he could commence his burglarious operations. He was saved that evening, later became the leader of that Mission, and was instrumental in leading to Christ such men as Billy Sunday, the great baseball player, and Melvin Trotter.

Salvation is a revelation to man, not an explanation by man. Salvation outdistances all philosophies and all vocabularies of earth.

ARMS FOUND
ON JUNKPart-Owner Pleads
Necessity

Charged with possession of arms and ammunition without a licence, Li Fat, part-owner of a junk, appearing before Mr. E. Himsworth at the Kowloon Court yesterday, pleaded that it was necessary for him to carry arms as he carried on his trade in a pirate-infested district.

It was stated by the prosecution that a licence for these arms was applied for a month ago, but the licence had been refused. The junk owners. They were given permission, however, to carry the arms and ammunition into Chinese territory on the condition that these would not be brought back to the Colony.

Since such permission had been granted, the junk had made three visits to the Colony. On the last occasion a police search resulted in discovery of the arms on board.

Mr. Himsworth, in imposing fines of $10, suggested that the arms be cached in Chinese territory before the junk entered British waters.

AIR MAILS

Denebola Arrives
At Kai Tak

The Denebola, plane of Imperial Airways, arrived yesterday afternoon at 2.55 o'clock from Bangkok with 461 kilos of mail which included three bags from London, Australia and Central Europe.

According to an official statement from the Post Office and Lieut-Commander A. D. S. Murray, of Imperial Airways, all the mail from England is up-to-date; the mail which was delayed during the Christmas rush season has been distributed at its destination.

The Delta and Delphinus left Kai Tak this morning for Bangkok.

One plane will arrive on Saturday afternoon with Australian mail. The other plane will not arrive until Sunday afternoon with mail from England, this delay of a day being due to poor weather conditions on the main route.

The Air France plane will leave Kai Tak to-morrow morning for Hanol.

Reports have been received that the Pan American Airways' China Clipper has been delayed, due to poor weather conditions in the Pacific, and will not arrive in Hongkong until Monday at noon.

The return flight departs Kai Tak on Tuesday morning at approximately 8.30 o'clock.

It is reported unofficially that the mechanical test flight of the new Boeing 72-passenger Clipper will be at the end of this month, and this new flying boat will arrive in Hongkong about February 1 with mail and freight, but no passengers.

BUTCHER TRADE
PROSPERS

An interesting feature in connection with the prosperity of local business as a result of the influx of refugees is revealed by the following statistics of the butcher business. The membership of the trade union of butchers has, increased by 247 men, from 1,126 last year to 1,373 this year, while the number of stalls now totals 307, an increase of 20 per cent. over last year's figure.

OUR LONDON LETTER

Goodwill To Men—
Fascist Aggression

(BY JACK CHEN)

LONDON, December 31.
FIVE INCHES OF SNOW over Britain has set the Old Uns romping about the days when the Thames froze over and the crowds skated under London Bridge. (That was in Mr. Popsy's time). The Young Uns reminisce about the September Crisis, Preparedness, A.R.P., Spain, and the New Year!

It is clear that the world after Munich is ruled by the cynical principles of Power Politics. The security of any nation depends in the first place on the state of its armaments, its system of alliances and the morale of its people. It is the realization of this that causes thoughtful Public opinion to react so immediately to every shift of advantage between the democratic powers and the fascist powers who seek for an immediate satisfaction of their aggressive appetites by any means that seems feasible—including the most brutal of wars.

It is slowly dawning on us that steadily. Its used to be called "a dagger pointing at the heart of Germany," now it has become a burglar's "jimmy" with which Germany will crack all the safes of Eastern Europe and if possible pry off a chunk of Soviet Ukraine.

Both Poland and Hungary are alarmed at the prospect of a violent change in the Eastern European status quo and are particularly fearful of their Ukrainian possessions.

Poland, with its many dissatisfied national minorities (that offer fertile ground for the planting of German propaganda and arms) is particularly disturbed. This explains the sudden renewal of cordiality in Warsaw for the Soviet Union, that has resulted in a re-confirmation of all pacts of non-aggression and amity and to a development of trade agreements to increase trade between the two countries.

The Poles are only now realizing that their policy of co-operation with the Third Reich has been leading them by the nose to destruction.

II
"REVOLT"

The ever increasing pressure of international events is making itself felt in the home arena. The Premier retained his majority in the House of Commons despite the Opposition's motion of "No Confidence" in his foreign policy. But this cannot hide the fact that his administration is receiving severe criticism from within the Tory party itself.

The "revolt" of the Junior Ministers, Mr. Robert Hudson, the Marquess of Dufferin and Lord Strathcona based on their charges that there is an inexcusable lag in defence preparation is serious, but even more serious is the rumoured "revolt" of the City.

It was certainly the criticism and pressure of the City that in large measure decided the Government to threaten strong measures against unfair Nazi trade competition in South Eastern Europe. The City is now reported to have made its criticism even more effective by causing a very considerable lag in the way that funds are rolling into the Conservative Party Election war chest.

The chief demand from this quarter is that the Government should give more determined protection to legitimate British trading interests threatened by the monopoly tendencies and unfair competition practices of the fascist nations in Europe and Japan in China. It is being realized that the Chamberlain policy of appeasement (even at other countries' expense) strikes directly at important British interests.

This aspect of the war manoeuvring has brought China and Japan into the news again. Articles in the conservative press (particularly the "Telegraph and Morning Post") show how British interests are threatened by Japan's efforts to monopolize the China markets.

News of the American extension of credits was received with satisfaction. The Opposition in the Commons called for a similar move on the part of Britain. Mr. Chamberlain, however, still insists on the fact that "we are not prepared to deny to either combatant the normal relations which they are entitled to expect from a friendly nation," thus again he places the innocent and assaulted party on the same footing as the aggressor, and apparently recognizes both of them as "friends."

He gave assurance, however, that an extension of credits to China would be sympathetically considered when the new Export Credit Bill is passed.

THE MERCURY
FALLS
Big Overnight
Change

Between 3 p.m. on Wednesday and 6 a.m. yesterday, the remarkable drop of 20 degrees in the temperature was recorded at the Royal Observatory.

Reaching 73.9 degrees on Wednesday afternoon—the highest temperature recorded in January since 1931—the mercury fell by 5.30 a.m. to 53.9.

A drop of ten degrees was recorded between 3 p.m. and 6 p.m. on Wednesday and from 6 p.m. onwards the mercury steadily fell until 7 a.m. when it commenced to rise again. At 9 a.m. yesterday it was 57.8 degrees.

This is how it varied:
3 p.m. 73.9; 5 p.m. 68.3; 7 p.m. 63.1; 9 p.m. 60; 11 p.m. 57.5; 1 a.m. 54.9; 3 a.m. 55.5; 5 a.m. 54.7; 6 a.m. 53.9; 7 a.m. 53.9; 8 a.m. 55; 9 a.m. 57.8.

At 4 p.m. yesterday the temperature was 50 while the minimum between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. was 54.

YOUNGEST MEMBER OF COLONIAL EMPIRE

Centenary Celebrations Of Aden: King's Message

LONDON, JAN. 19 (BSW)—THE ADEN CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS which have been proceeding for the past fortnight reached a climax to-day, the 100th anniversary of the hoisting of the British flag, and at the centenary parade, the Governor, Sir Bernard Reilly, read a telegram of congratulation and good wishes from the King.

His Majesty added, "The history of Aden is bound up with seafaring traditions of which the British Empire is so justly proud. Though the youngest of the Colonies Aden has, for many years past, formed an essential link in the maritime communications of the Empire and to-day her people are celebrating the centenary of loyal and devoted service to the British Crown."

"I look forward with confidence, not only to the maintenance of past traditions, but also to the continued development of the Colony and the increasing prosperity of its inhabitants."

A message from the Colonial Minister was also read.

FIRMLY UNITED

The Governor's reply, expressing gratitude for the King's message, added, "The people of Aden are proud of its position as an essential link in the maritime communications of Your Majesty's Empire. They enter to-day with confidence on the beginning of a second century of development and progress under the British Crown with which they, without distinction of creed, are firmly united in gratitude and loyal resolution."

The reply to Mr. MacDonald welcomed the assurances obtained in his message. After reference to the progress made under the old system, the reply proceeded, "At the same time the people of this Colony realize Aden has reached a stage in its development when it has become fitted to take its place as an individual member of the Colonial Empire and that its interests will be best served by the gradual introduction of features of Colonial administration, that will promote the future development and welfare and progress of its people."

CANTON WAR FRONT

INSUFFICIENT JAPANESE TROOPS FOR ADVANCE

Districts Up-River Are All Well Defended

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

CHUNGSHAN, Jan. 19.—Despite the increase of Japanese troops in Samsui, on the West River, Chinese military circles state that the enemy has not sufficient forces to advance westward. The upper river districts are well defended by Gen. Paj Chang-hai, the famous Kwangsi leader.

It was reported that 44 divisions of Japanese troops have landed near Whampoa in order to attack Tolshan, Sunwei, Hoiping and Kungmoon and to cut off all possible communication links in the province. There is, however, no confirmation of the report that Japan can send four divisions to Kwangtung when troops are needed for the northwest offensive.

CHARGES NOT DISCLOSED

Unusual Features At Bow Street

LONDON, Jan. 18 (Reuter)—Several unusual features of procedure accompanied the appearance at Bow Street to-day of seven men arrested in and around London.

The charges were not disclosed. Three of the men were brought in separately.

None was allowed in the court until the previous one had left. Thereafter a batch of three were heard together.

A rifle and ammunition were produced in connection with some of the cases, and evidence was given that arms and ammunition were found on the premises of some of the accused.

To Prevent Sale Of Scrap Iron To Japan

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (Reuter)—A committee of influential Americans, headed by the former Secretary of State, Col. Henry L. Stimson, has been formed with the object of preventing the sale of scrap iron, oil, steel and lorryes to Japan.

The committee will ask Congress to pass legislation at the present session prohibiting "the extension of economic aid for war purposes to a country which is violating a solemn peace treaty to which the United States is a party."

Mr. Roger Green, former United States Consul-General at Hankow, is chairman of the committee.

Debut Before H.K. Audience

MISS BARBARA GILMAR GERMAN SONGS POPULAR

Miss Barbara Gilmar, who was Prima Donna at the State Opera House, Estonia, made her debut before a Hongkong audience in the Rose Room of the Peninsula Hotel last night in a varied programme of songs in seven languages from opera and operetta, and the films.

Miss Gilmar's debut was greeted by a fairly large audience, well representative both of Social circles and of musical circles in the Colony. His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, and Lady Northcote being present.

Miss Gilmar's recital of German songs proved more popular with the audience and these songs excited the most applause. Included in the programme were two songs from the film "Das Hof Concert." Supporting Miss Gilmar were Mr. Ettore Pellegatti, cellist, and Mr. Arthur Lay, who accompanied at the piano. Mr. Pellegatti's recital of Poppo's "Polonaise de Concert" was very heartily acclaimed.

ESTONIAN SONG

Miss Gilmar included an Estonian song in her recital, this being Aavik's "Kõju Igatsus," which was very pleasing. "Mi Chlamano Mimi" from Puccini's "La Bohème" seemed to particularly suit Miss Gilmar's soprano, being even more heartily applauded than the German songs.

Of the four modern English songs in the programme yesterday, Bridge's "Love Went A-Flying" was the best received. Comparatively speaking, the English songs did not seem to interest the audience, who really awoke to Miss Gilmar after "Vol Che Sapete" from Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro."

After the interval the "Songs of Europe," inclusive of three by German composers, received much applause, and the final section of the programme took in Fritz's "Indian Love Call" from "Rose Marie" and Lehár's "Villia" from "The Merry Widow."

LEAGUE COUNCIL

INCREASE IN DESPATCH OF TROOPS TO SPAIN

Four Italian Army Corps In Catalonia Offensive

GENEVA, JAN. 19 (REUTER)—AT A MEETING OF THE LEAGUE COUNCIL which examined reports of the United Kingdom Commission for investigation of air bombardments in Spain, Senor Del Vayo, Republican Spanish Foreign Minister, declared that since the Munich Agreement, which made it possible to withdraw troops from defence in Central Europe, there had been a marked increase in the despatch of troops and materials to Nationalist Spain.

At least four Italian army corps were now participating in the offensive on Catalonia.

Aerial bombardments, such as that of Barcelona on December 31, were attributable to "Italian and German allies of Spanish opponents of the Government."

Senor Del Vayo added that the stout resistance of the Spanish people would not be broken either by the action of the aggressors or indifference by those who for three years had been tolerating the monstrosity.

Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and head of the British delegation to the League Council, maintained that the establishment of the British Commission had been effective and hoped that it would help to mitigate the disastrous nature of these aerial bombardments.

The discussion will be resumed at a further meeting.

Forecast Of U.S. Production

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (Reuter)—A forecast that within three years the United States can be turning out war planes at the rate of 12,000 a year, was made yesterday by Major-Gen. Arnold, chief of the Army Air Corps, at a secret session of the House of Representatives' military committee, according to members of the committee.

Emphasizing the importance of building up the nation's ability to manufacture planes on a large scale, Major-Gen. Arnold specifically suggested to Congress to permit industry to start as soon as possible on the minimum increase of 3,000 planes requested by President Roosevelt. He declared that they would abolish competitive bidding if they were in an emergency. "I think right now we are faced with an emergency, and that Congress ought to change the law."

PARLIAMENT NOT TO BE CALLED AT PRESENT

Mr. Chamberlain Replies To Labour Leader

LONDON, January 19 (BWS)—The Prime Minister, replying to Mr. Clement Attlee, says he has given careful consideration to the request that Parliament be called, which is apparently based on the view that the time has come when the policy of non-intervention should be reversed and an embargo on the supply of arms and munition to the Spanish Government removed. In the opinion of the Government, such a course would inevitably lead to extension of the conflict, with consequences which could not be accurately foreseen but would undoubtedly be very grave.

"The Government is not, as at present advised, prepared to adopt such a course, and in these circumstances it sees no advantage in anticipating a date on which Parliament is due to meet in less than a fortnight," states Mr. Chamberlain.

"The Government will continue to watch the situation in Spain as it develops and if, in their view, circumstances should demand alteration in the date it will not hesitate to recommend that the House be called together at short notice."

Mr. Shigemitsu's Speech At London Banquet

LONDON, Jan. 19 (Reuter)—Mr. Mamoru Shigemitsu, Japanese Ambassador in London, in a speech at the dinner of the Japan Society in London last evening, emphasized his firm belief in open diplomacy.

He regretted that so many of the publicists writing about Japanese affairs could neither speak nor read Japanese. "This want of understanding naturally leads to unhappy results, and what seems almost wilful misinterpretation of the real facts."

Mr. Shigemitsu said that, if it were possible for him to discuss current affairs, he was certain he could make his hearers understand the truth of the situation which unfortunately was not fully appreciated here, and elsewhere.

"It is a fact that Anglo-Japanese friendship does constitute one of the main pillars of world peace. Without it, peace is bound to be precarious. It is an essential and integral part of the fabric of peace and appeasement. There are certain elements who want to see our relations hopelessly strained. There are extremists in both countries. They cannot do much harm so long as we understand and trust each other. Let us then look at the situation with unfailing faith, that whatever happens we are bound to remain friends forever, and let us calmly regard the current phases of politics without letting the susceptibilities of the moment blind and bewilder our judgment, for when the clouds are lifted we shall see our everlasting friendship glittering like a great Alpine peak in the radiant sunshine."

CHINA DESIRES TO PAY ALL OBLIGATIONS

Ready To Consider Any Fair Arrangement

CHUNGKING, Jan. 19 (Reuter).—China wants to pay all her obligations and is ready to consider any fair arrangement to that end, declared a spokesman of the Finance Ministry in connection with the announcement that China would no longer service loans on the Customs but would apportion revenue from the Customs. He emphasized, however, that in the first place, the share attributable to the Japanese-occupied areas should be forthcoming, and secondly, that interference with Chinese currency should cease.

The spokesman affirmed that China had no intention of declaring a moratorium.

STATISTICAL DATA

CHUNGKING, Jan. 19 (Central).—Statistical data were quoted by a spokesman of the Ministry of Finance to substantiate the reasons why the Chinese Government discontinued the practice of advancing funds from the Central Bank of China for servicing loans secured on Customs revenue in the course of a press interview yesterday.

According to the spokesman, the total Customs-secured long-term loans, calculated according to the government exchange rate, amount to approximately $2,500,000,000. These are in the following three categories: $900,000,000 loans in foreign currency, $100,000,000 Boxer Indemnity Funds, and $1,500,000,000 in Chinese currency.

Payments due in 1939 include approximately $4,000,000 for loans in foreign currency, $3,000,000 for the Boxer Indemnity Funds, and $18,000,000 for loans in Chinese currency. The monthly payment for the British Boxer Indemnity Fund for the current year amounts to £50,000, while that for the U.S. Boxer Indemnity Fund U.S. $100,000.

ANGLO-GERMAN TRADE

Discussions Taking Place Soon

LONDON, Jan. 19 (BWS).—The Grand Council of the Federation of British Industries yesterday received a report from its Director, Mr. Guy Loeck, regarding informal conversations held before Christmas with representatives of the German Reichsgruppe Industrie regarding Anglo-German trade relations and the question of competition between the two countries in third country markets, especially in south-eastern Europe.

The Grand Council has approved the suggestion that official discussions should take place between the two organizations with a view to facilitating negotiations between individual industries in Germany and Great Britain on these subjects.

The Reichsgruppe Industrie has been informed, and arrangements are being considered for an early meeting between the two bodies.

WORLD COTTON CONFERENCE PROSPECTS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (Reuter).—According to Mr. Henry A. Wallace, Secretary for Agriculture, the Administration is tentatively considering an international conference of the cotton-growing nations on how to dispose of surplus cotton stocks.

This statement was made following a White House conference which Senator Bankhead arranged after the inconclusive meeting of cotton Senators.

The latter are expected to resume their discussions later this week.

No decisions were reached at the White House conference except that cotton was a serious problem.

A New York message says that there is mixed comment in cotton circles regarding the prospective results of an international cotton conference, with the majority not too sanguine.

Meanwhile, Mr. Wallace, at a press conference, stated that he would welcome conferences with the officials of other countries, but he declined to say whether he would take the initiative. He said there was considerable hope that similar conferences on wheat and sugar will produce good results, and he felt the same would hold true for cotton.

FOREIGN WORKERS IN GERMANY

BERLIN, Jan. 19 (T/Ocean).—Almost one and a half million foreign workers are engaged in Germany as a result of the labour shortage, states Dr. Friedrich Syrup, of the Reichs Ministry of Labour, in the January number of the magazine, "Four Year Plan."
